

MRS. CHINN FAINTS

As She Leaves Court Room After Being Fined $1,000.

MAILED OBSCENE LETTERS

Mrs. Lane Pleads Guilty and Gets a $500 Fine.

When Mrs. Laura J. Chinn of Arkansas City heard the sentence of the federal judge yesterday morning her eyes fell from the floor and were bedewed with tears. She was a crushed woman. In the presence of a large audience of men, she had acknowledged that she was guilty of sending obscene letters to Jesse N. Lee, the lascivious advocate of free love, who had, the day before, been sentenced to eighteen months in the federal penitentiary for sending obscene letters to her. Both were equally guilty.

After Judge Hook had fined Mrs. Chinn $1,000, she turned and walked unaided from the court room, but just as she reached the hall her nerves gave way completely and she fell to the floor. She was taken up by two men and carried to the clerk's office, where she swooned and fell onto the sofa in a heap.

Mrs. Chinn is a very fleshy woman, and is perhaps 50 years of age. Her hair is turning gray and she is a grandmother. She has made her home at Arkansas City for several years, where she is highly respected both in a social and professional way. How or why she ever became associated with Lee in the free love business was not explained in court and cannot be comprehended by anyone acquainted with Mrs. Chinn.

Mrs. Chinn was released on her own recognizance. The fine of $1,000 is subject to the execution of the court, and will probably never be a source of much annoyance to Mrs. Chinn.

Another woman who received a heavy fine on the same conditions as that of Mrs. Chinn was Mrs. Alice Lane of McPherson county. Mrs. Lane pleaded guilty to the charge of writing threatening communications on postal cards, and was fined $50. It seems that Mrs. Lane had trouble with some of her neighbors in Lyons county, and after she got over into McPherson she wrote each of her neighbors a very nasty epistle on a postal card. They called the attention of the postoffice officials to the matter and Mrs. Lane was arrested. She has a brother in this city with whom she has been staying most of the time since her arrest.

Court adjourned at 2:30. Some very important criminal cases are docketed for today, among them being the McDonald perjury case, which will likely occupy two or three days.

Another Expulsion.

It will be of interest to the readers of the Eagle who use McElre's Wine of Cardui in their homes to know that the sale of this remedy has so increased during the past year that the manufacturers have again had to increase their capacity by the addition of another large building. It has often been said that an article that finds favor with the ladies is sure to achieve great success. No more striking example of this could be found than the history of Wine of Cardui. From thousands of ladies' letters received by the manufacturers, the following are selected:

From Mrs. Mary Pankowski, 23 Rose street, Chicago, Ill.:

I have taken a bottle of Wine of Cardui and feel much better than when I wrote you. I did not have any pains at my last monthly period.

From Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Kalamazoo, Mich.:

I suffered from what was supposed to be tumor of the womb, but I have taken five bottles of Wine of Cardui and am almost cured.

From Mrs. J. L. Todd, St. Louis, Mo.:

I do not think I would have been living if I had not taken Wine of Cardui. We desired a child very much, and I now have a baby seven months old.

From Mrs. W. S. Harris, 715 Walker street, Kansas City, Mo.:

I have tried Wine of Cardui and found it to be the greatest medicine on earth for female troubles.

SOLDIERS' REUNION NOTES

Some of the Features of Race Day's Program, Beginning Tuesday

Everything is moving in the order for the largest reunion of old soldiers ever held in southern Kansas. The opening day, Tuesday, will be highly interesting and several addresses will be made. Mrs. H. Childs and daughter, Miss Blanche, will by request render several patriotic songs. City Attorney Helm will deliver the reception address in place of Mayor Ross, and all know it will be of a high order. Mr. Helm is an able and eloquent speaker. Rev. Burns, of the South Emporia Avenue Methodist church, will speak, and this will assure enthusiasm and will warm the hearts of the veterans. Rev. C. H. Wareham will not act as chaplain of the day. At night several local speakers will address the meeting, and Col. Tom Jackson will deliver a short address on the "Battle of Fort Pillow." This is a vivid and eloquent description of one of the most startling events of the war.

There will be campfire exercises and
